- That Plaintiff not be allowed to make contact in any way related to or in reference to this lawsuit or any of the people involved, with the programs to which Defendants refer clients in the course of their referral business.
- That Plaintiff's attorneys not be allowed to divulge to anyone the names or other identifying information about the programs to which the Defendants refer.

Good cause for this protective order exists because: (1) the programs to which the Defendants refer are irrelevant to the present litigation; (2) the programs are a trade secret and confidential information; and (3) contact or other access to the programs by Plaintiff would result in annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, and undue burden to Defendants. This Motion is supported by the Memorandum in Support of Defendants' Motion for Protective Order filed herewith.

DATED this 16th day of April, 2003.
